This was Mahathir's first Malay film. The cast was made up of Malay, Chinese, Indian and even white actors including Salma Hayek. Mahathir's daughter Zainon Abidin was cast as a very young Miss Susanna. The film was released to critical acclaim, and was lauded as one of the best films made in Malaysia. The critical acclaim was mainly due to the brilliant acting performances and the stunning cinematography. The film was also a box office success, grossing RM6,000,000 at the local box office.
